

BUSINESS ANALYST

Company: Litens Automotive Partnership

Location: Woodbridge

Status: Full Time, Employee

Job Category: Business Analyst

Position Profile

This role will appeal to professionals who seek an opportunity to enable enterprise systems and processes for an evolving global platform. In partnership with cross functional management bring forth business improvements that can deliver against short and long term company objectives. You possess exceptional analytical and project management skills complimented by a collaborative style that embraces teamwork, the sharing of ideas and the engagement of a workforce to deliver creative solutions to meet business challenges. You measure your success by the success of the team, company you work with and business partners you serve.

The ideal candidate will have functional experience complimented by business analyst experience. Applicants with Agile PLM (PC, PPM or PCM) implementation experience will receive immediate consideration.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Strong business acumen: supply chain, operations management, product life cycle management, fundamental finance
- Strong data analysis, process mapping and gap analysis
- Data / scripting/ integration proficiency:
  - SQL, relational database design, stored procedures
  - workflow or business application configuration
  - formal system quality assurance testing and user acceptance
- Applied PLM:
  - Product Data Management
  - Engineering Change Management
  - Project Management
  - Product Cost Management
- Applied advanced planning and scheduling:
  - Constraint management, heuristic or optimization approaches
  - Demand management
- Understands business silos (Customers, Suppliers, Engineering, Supply Chain and Production) and how these relate to one another
- A strong individual who has great people skills in communication and listening, has a mind set of researching, performing detail analysis, is persistent, able to contribute fact based opinions, applies take charge attitude and know how to find answers.
- Comprehension of macro and micro levels of the business, company goals and supporting business applications.
- Success credited by ability to work with many different types of personalities.

EXPERIENCE/EDUCATION:

- A University degree in Business Administration or Engineering or extensive ERP implementation experience
- Demonstrated business systems implementation leadership

- A minimum three (3) years manufacturing operations experience in supply chain or engineering
- A minimum of one (2) years of information systems experience as business analyst using an industry recognized improvement methodology Global business systems implementation and support experience

About the Company

Litens Automotive Partnership is a dynamic world class manufacturer of engineered power transmission systems and components. An ISO/TS-16949 registered Tier I supplier in the automotive industry, Litens Automotive is committed to attaining excellence in every aspect of its operations.

To apply, please send your resume to: employment.info@litens.com

We thank everyone for their applications; however, only qualified applicants meeting all of the above stated application criteria will be contacted.

No phone calls please.