

MILLWRIGHT

Company: Litens Automotive Partnership

Location: Woodbridge, ON

Status: Full Time, Employee

Job Category: Manufacturing Engineering

QUALIFICATIONS

- Certified Industrial Millwright in the Province of Ontario for a least two years and have three plus years experience in a maintenance position in a manufacturing environment.
- Knowledge and ability to use metal turning equipment such as milling machines, lathes, drills,
- Experience with modular conveyor systems and servo controlled gearboxes and drives.
- Experience with automated lines and pallet conveyor system.
- Excellent knowledge of hydraulics, servo hydraulics, pneumatics and their applications.
- Strong troubleshooting skills.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Good knowledge of electrical control technology and basic PLC knowledge.
- Computer skills and have knowledge of computerized PM and Work Order system.
- efficiently.
- Ability to read machine blueprints and assemble machines accordingly.
- Be able to work on a rotating shift basis, occasional heavy lifting and work overtime.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Possesses excellent trouble shooting skills to determine the cause of and solutions to problems independently involving other staff or external support as necessary.
- Uses a good knowledge of PLC logic/programming to aid in trouble shooting and repair.
- Capable of fabricating and modifying parts as required for use in repairs.
- Capable of managing the repair of any mechanical equipment in use at Litens making difficult decisions when necessary.
- Assembles machines according to blueprints independently, working with the Machine Designers to make design improvements and corrections as necessary.
- Uses a thorough understanding of hydraulics, pneumatics and mechanical systems to ensure proper operation of the equipment once completed.
- Uses the drill press, power saws, and milling machine safely and effectively.
- Demonstrates a thorough knowledge of Preventive Maintenance systems and completes P.M. checklists properly.
- Follows the Preventive Maintenance Instruction properly.
- Provides coaching and guidance to more junior team members.
- Coaches all team members on areas of specialized knowledge.
- May be required to prepare learning material and teach others in areas of your expertise.
- Rotating shift work may be required.
- Occasional heavy lifting and overtime hours may be required.

About the Company

Litens Automotive Partnership is a dynamic world class manufacturer of engineered power transmission systems and components. An ISO/TS-16949 registered Tier I supplier in the automotive industry, Litens Automotive is committed to attaining excellence in every aspect of its operations.

To apply, please send your resume to:

employment.info@litens.com

We thank everyone for their applications; however, only qualified applicants meeting all of the above stated application criteria will be contacted.

No phone calls please.